

For the safety and sanity of all air travelers, PLEASE don't allow cell phones on commercial aircraft while in flight. Sending e-mails via computer would be fine because it does not disrupt passenger's peace and quiet and won't interfere with safety messages from the crew. Cell phones are an annoyance and a distraction for all.

Thanks for your consideration.

-- Paul Wilcox